

There are  $n$  people in a city, and each of them has exactly 1000 friends (friendship is always symmetric). Prove that it is possible to select a group  $S$  of people such that at least  $n/2017$  persons in  $S$  have exactly two friends in  $S$ .