

Let p be a prime number and let k be a positive integer. Suppose that the numbers $a_i = i^k + i$ for $i = 0, 1, \dots, p-1$ form a complete residue system modulo p . What is the set of possible remainders of a_2 upon division by p ?