

Let $p(z)$ be a non-constant polynomial of degree n with complex coefficients. Prove that there exist at least $n + 1$ complex numbers z for which $p(z)$ is 0 or 1.